KINDNESS

Great Impact

Matthew 25:35-36

“For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in; I was naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me [with help and ministering care]; I was in prison, and you came to Me [ignoring personal danger]” (AMP).

Devotional

We will never know the impact our kindness has on others, but the Lord knows. He places people and situations along our path, with the intent for us to show them Jesus. We are called to be a friend to the friendless. The enemy will use people and situations for destruction to create division and even possibly revenge. However, when we act out of pure motives (love and kindness), we can only release the Kingdom into those people and situations, thwarting the plans of the enemy.

Never underestimate doing the right thing, no matter how busy you are or how costly it may be. Seek the Lord for guidance, He will direct you in thought and action. Be prepared to make a great impact!

Study

Spend some time studying Luke 10:30-37 this week. In what ways is the Lord calling you to service, as He did in the Parable of the Good Samaritan?

Reflection & Action

- Meditate on Matthew 6:3-4. What did the Lord reveal to you in regards to this scripture?
- How can you be a friend to the friendless this week?
- Reflect on personal testimonies in your life where kindness made a great impact. How can you replicate those actions to others?
